To prepare a solid foundation for your Marriage

Many are exiting marriages yet many still want to gain entry; of which you are one. The alarming rate of divorce rather than scare you should make you determine to have and keep your own marriage forever; or ‘till death do you part.’

We want to see your marriage work!

Through:

- ❑ Guidance and Counselling

Guidance and Counselling

We seek to meet the needs of young adults intending to get married so they can make informed decisions before committing to this journey of a lifetime. We desire to walk with both the man and woman through courtship till the wedding day and see to the establishment of a successful marriage.

Relationship Health Check

This is a set of inventories designed to help assess your relationship. They include exercises to explore together how to develop stronger communication and problem solving skills.

Support

We provide advice, resources and support on wedding arrangements especially for the less privileged.
